Product Overview

Excel Single Gang Stainless Steel Keystone Faceplates allow the deployment of Excel Keystone Jacks in either a 1 Port or 2 Port configuration. They are supplied with a 35 mm deep metal back box that can be drilled to accept conduit entry as required. Each faceplate is supplied with both standard and Torx T10 tamper resistant fixing screws making them ideal for installation in a variety of situations both public and secure. The stainless steel faceplates are designed to have "clean lines" by only showing the shutter and label position.
